Student Legal Services provides low-cost legal services to full time students at the University of Colorado (both undergraduate and graduate.) The office provides consultations to students in a variety of areas including traffic violations, criminal charges, consumer affairs, contracts, landlord/tenant relations, small claims court, accidents, insurance problems, debt collection, bankruptcy, wills and probate, divorce, employment, and DUI/DWAI. Legal Services cannot provide advice about tax laws, immigration, internal University problems, incorporations (small businesses), patents and copyright, or real estate. The cost of the initial consultation includes a follow-up appointment. Representation in court is available in many types of cases. All fees are a fraction of the cost of a private attorney. Services are by appointment only.

The Center's Legal Helpline is the legal outreach project of The Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center of Colorado, based in Denver. The mission is to defend and expand the civil and legal rights of GLBT persons and those with HIV. They strive to promote understanding the tolerance by educating the public about discrimination against the GLVT community and those with HIV. The Center pursues a limited number of high-impact litigation cases that establish legal precedents in the courts to improve the lives of GLBT people and can provide basic information and referrals to GLBT friendly attorneys statewide on a variety of legal issues. The CLIP Legal Helpline is available to members of the GLBT community and those with HIV in Colorado who have legal issues or concerns.

Se habla español; somos bilingue y bicultural

El Comité de Longmont is a human rights and advocacy organization whose mission is to assist Latinos and others in our community through direct client services (in the office and by phone), programs, and through our extensive referral network. We assist in areas such as: unemployment and lost/unpaid wages; translation of legal documents (carte de poder, marriage licenses and birth certificates, etc.); immigration issues; family issues (divorce, funeral, limited mediation, etc.); court and justice system concerns (restraining orders, traffic and other citations, etc.); education; and mediation. We are not a legal services agency, but we do refer clients to appropriate resources which usually serve them based on their ability to pay.

Our office is open Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M.-5:00 P.M.
